FAQs – Class V

This applies to nominees who were part of the Class V selection cycle and have not been already notified of their declination.

1. Am I still being considered for the Fellowship?
   a. Yes.
   b. We will make decisions on who will be named to class V at a later date.

2. Will I have to interview again?
   a. No, although we may want to have a quick phone call with you in late 2020/early 2021.
   b. If you have not heard from the Fellowship by November 15, 2020, please reply to your original notification email expressing your continued interest and include any personal or professional updates you’d like us to know.

3. When will the class be announced?
   a. We cannot say for sure, but it is likely to be in spring 2021.
   b. If the class is announced in spring of 2021, your first seminar would most likely be in fall of 2021.

4. Will all the seminar dates be different?
   a. Yes.
   b. We plan to notify you several months prior to when the class would be announced so that you can reassess your ability to commit to the new dates.

5. Will you accept new nominations?
   a. It is unlikely.
   b. We had an extremely talented pool of nominees this year. However, we will make an announcement if we change course regarding any new nominations being accepted.

6. Does my nominator know about this decision to delay naming the class?
   a. Yes.
   b. We have contacted all nominators in our system to inform them of our decision to delay the naming of class V. It may have been a mass email, so please ask them to check their spam folders if they haven’t seen our notification come through.

7. If we have additional questions, who should we contact?
   a. Please email Ashley Sillaro with a copy to the FLF team.
      i. ashley.sillaro@aspeninstitute.org and flf@aspeninstitute.org

8. What more should I do?
   a. Watch for an email from the Fellowship in fall 2020 with an update on the process.
   b. If you haven’t heard from us by November 15, please email us.
   c. Feel free to follow our activity and leverage Aspen Institute resources.

We wish you good health and strong resolve as you lead through this unprecedented time.
